"We would need the ministers to help the people in shock etc., so they were called with the following results:

Rev. Puffer, out of City; Rev. Luter, no answer; Rev. Lowry, attended meeting; Rev. Root, attended meeting; Rev. Enselmann, attended meeting and Father Briet enstein, out of City.

"Another problem would be taking care of the small children who have lost their parents. We figured that three-fourths of the children would be without parents. It was decided that it would be better to put the children into private homes and pair them off with their own group. In discussing this problem we wondered if the people here would be prejudiced toward taking in different races for the emergency. Would you take a colored child into your home during an emergency? We would like very much to hear from people in Crawford County on this. Call 5-111 and let us know. Otherwise these children would have to be grouped and taken care of without personal care as in an orphanage," Davis said.

"There would be road blocks set up from the city until all military and essential traffic was cleared. We might have to supply some trucks and busses down to the stricken area to be used for transportation. Of course incoming evacuees would have been issued passes to leave their city and of course people entering the stricken area would have to have passes."

"Our survey shows we could feed 4,279 people in regular feeding places in Crawford County. We can house 1,141 people in commercial establishments the year around," Davis pointed out.

"Water would be a big problem in the Southern part of the state because of Radio Active contamination. Here it wouldn't be such a problem because the river flows so swiftly, it would soon carry it away," Davis explained.

The Civil Defense Headquarters in Crawford County could be in the Court House, School House or City Hall. It was decided to use the City Hall as Civil Defense Headquarters in case of an emergency and to file records there.

"We would need to train several auxiliary police and deputy sheriffs. Harold Hatfield Chief of Police and Sheriff John Papendiek expect to start training these auxiliary police immediately for use in any emergency," Davis explained.

"We decided we would need some means of warning other than the Alert. It was decided to use the fire siren with 5 minutes of low to high continuous wails. At this time if and when it comes only persons involved in Civil Defense are to leave their homes.

These CD personnel will report to the City Hall where CD Headquarters will be for their assignment. Anyone interested in helping in time of disaster is asked to sign up with Civil Defense Director Floyd Davis at 235 E. Michigan Ave. They will be issued an ID card, and pass, to be used in an emergency," Davis stated.

"We would like to thank the different people that have helped us on the alert test especially the ones that took an active part. They were:

Mrs. Abbie Madill, Mrs. Alice Pratt, Mrs. Mary Jorgenson, Mrs. Fred Bear, Mrs. Barbara Welsh, Mrs. Leonard Knibbs, Mrs. Dor Gohro, Mrs. Marian Joseph, May, or A. L. Roberts, Rev. Wayne Root, Jack Papendiek, Harold Hatfield, Rev. M. E. Lowry, Mrs. Menna Corwin, Frederic Supervisor, Beaver Creek Supervisor, Martin Kitchen, Rollo Felling, Arle Wilson, Rev. John Enselmann, Jack McMillan and Kay Ellen Pettengill.

Crawford County Supervisors were named as advisors to the director as well as the City Council and they are asked to report immediately to CD Headquarters if an emergency arises.

"In case we missed anyone who helped us on the Alert test we are sorry and want to thank you for your time and co-operation.

We learned a lot from this test and feel we could handle an actual situation now. But we hope and pray we never have to," Davis concluded.

Argue As To Who Gave State

Natural Of New Legislation

Citizens already paying new taxes and obeying new laws are being bombarded from all sides by legislators seeking to make political hay out of the record.

Republicans claim they control the legislature and have given Michigan a hatful of wonderful new laws.

Democrats say the Republicans would not have rolled up their 1955 record had there not been minority party members there with a club, forcing them to act.

"The majority must be just as responsible for the things that were not accomplished," snapped Senator Patrick H. Doyle of Dearborn.

Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek), majority caucus chairman, issued his annual record-of-accomplishment statement as the legislature waited to adjourn.

He said the legislature was responsible for:

1. A $35,000,000 highway construction program which will concentrate on four-lane divided highways in the arterial road system. It is financed with a 1 1/2 cent increase in the gasoline tax.

2. A $28,000,000 budget-balancing tax program which will increase the load on business but not directly on consumers. It is an increase in the $30,000,000 Business Activities Tax.

3. Lifetime incomes for workers totally and permanently disabled on the job and increases in the maximum unemployment compensation benefits of from $42 to $54 for men with families. The $30 weekly maximum for single workers remains unchanged.

4. A new Fair Employment Practices Commission (FEPC) to bar discrimination in employment by reason of race, creed, color, national origin or ancestry.

Increased budgets for mental health, public health, more Michigan State Police, additional probation and parole officers — all were part of the legislative record.

Gov. Williams praised the legislature on the last night of the session, saying they had done a good job but had fallen below his hopes. "Perhaps I'm a perfectionist," he said.

Williams had asked for more money for mental health and once held a special meeting to pressure the legislature. The increases granted, he said, will handle only part of the natural expansion.

While refusing to kill or cripple the controversial Michigan Turnpike Authority, the Senate dealt it a blow when it ousted William E. Slaughter, Jr., as its chairman.

The move leaves the five member authority with two vacancies (one member, R. M. McConnell, of Detroit, died recently), and a third Highway Commissioner, Charles M. Ziegler, who has exhibited reluctant interest in turnpikes.

Insiders said it was the death-knell of turnpikes in Michigan, at least temporarily. Bond houses and other financiers are reticent about dealing with authorities with two vacancies, and which have stirred up controversy.

Motorists have been hit by two gasoline price increases within a month and everybody wants an investigation.

The first boost of 1 1/2 cents a gallon came before the state tax increase added another 1 1/2 cents. Neither refineries nor wholesalers said they were in a position to absorb the new tax.

Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak), chairman of a legislative committee a year ago, said he would favor another year. His 1953 findings, however, are sobering.

"We found the state couldn't do anything about gasoline prices," he said.

The committee went to Washington, was politely snubbed and told that refineries, if controlled at all, are under the jurisdiction of the Federal government.

With the latest increase, Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh started his own check-in co-operation with Gov. Williams.

Representatives of major refineries met with Kavanagh but the results were not disclosed. Kavanagh and others are interested in determining whether refineries operating in Michigan can be regulated by the Michigan Public Service Commission, which now controls utilities.

Some decision on the legal phases of the idea are expected before the summer is ended, but Broomfield said it would repeat his 1953 findings: Motorists will have to pay the higher prices.

Michigan State College will become Michigan State University July 1, the date fixed by the legislature for the long-sought name change.

The change will come in the midst of celebrations of the college's 100th anniversary as the nation's first agricultural institution of higher learning. Since those early days, it has become one of the country's leading liberal arts and engineering colleges and ranks among the foremost universities in the United States.

GOOD cake to make-ahead when entertaining because it stays moist and fresh is a spiced prune type. Frost this with cream-chocolate icing.

To get good color in molded fruit salads, use apricot nectar as the liquid in your recipe. It gives a rich tawny color to use with canned pineapple, grapes or canned peach slices.

Chopped raisins and finely grated raw apples added to pancake mixture will give you a real breakfast treat. Serve this with honey-butter.

Leftover rice can go glamorous when it's folded into whipped cream. Fold in some chopped dates and nuts or a combination of well drained pineapple chunks and marshmallows. Chill thoroughly for a delicious dessert.

Begin Our Second Year . . .

With this issue of the Crawford County Avalanche, we begin our second year in the new larger sized newspaper page. It was just one year ago this week that we switched from a seven column by 20 inch page to the eight column by 22 inch page. Of course by now most everyone is used to the appearance of the Avalanche.

The Avalanche is also about halfway through its seventy-seventh year of existence and we are nearing the eleventh anniversary of our moving to Grayling. We (and I speak for our whole family) are happier every day that we decided to buy the Avalanche and make Grayling our home town.

And the best of it all is . . . Grayling is going to be even a better place to live. The future of our community and our entire county is the brightest ever . . . and progress thought to have been impossible a few years ago, is almost commonplace today. R.W.S.

Korea Learns A Lesson . . .

It seems to be a hard and fast rule, applicable to the world around, that government-in-business means waste and inefficiency.

Finance Minister Yi Chung Chae of Korea recently said: "We have reached the conclusion the efficiency of government-controlled enterprises is far below that of private enterprise." In view of this, he added, "the government gradually will sell its holdings to private business."

In our own country, the exhaustive Hoover Commission reports have shown that government-owned businesses, for the most part, are not only enormously wasteful of the taxpayers' money, but aren't needed. Korea's new policy could be followed profitably here.

Needed: A Guaranteed Annual Market

The unions, in their drive for the guaranteed annual wage, ignore the fact that a necessary concomitant is a guaranteed annual market for the products of industry. Industry can pay wages or any other costs in only one way—by selling goods and dividing up the receipts. The richest company on earth wouldn't last long if it couldn't adjust its overhead expense in order to compensate for sales changes caused by seasonal or other factors. No one has found a way to make the consumer either guarantee how much he'll spend over a given time, or guarantee where, when, and how he'll spend it.

Actually, of course, the guaranteed annual wage (which could more accurately be described as a plan to pay people their regular wages for not working) would throw a road block in the way of industrial development and increased employment. Employers would be reluctant to grow and increase their labor force—for the reason that, if sales sagged for any reason, they would still have to meet a full payroll.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES OF THE AVANCE OF 23 YEARS AGO

June 23, 1932

The semi-annual picnic of the bands of Northeastern Michigan Bands association was held in Grayling last Sunday and it proved a most successful and enjoyable affair. Nine bands responded to the invitation from Grayling hand to be its guests on that day. The visitors began arriving at an early hour and with many of the musicians came their families and friends. It is estimated that there were fully 2,000 visitors in attendance. The bands present were Cheboygan, Gaylord, West Branch, Oscoda County, Midland, Rogers City and Grayling and Gaylord and Beaverton High School bands as guests. Alpena band was the only member of the association not in attendance. In all there were 275 musicians. Following dinner, the bands took turns in playing concert selections from a temporary band stand. Each band played two selections and each was generously applauded. It was very evident that there were many excellent musicians in the ranks, and a corps of very able directors. Ed G. Clark, director of Grayling band and president of the Band association had charge of the afternoon concert, and announced the numbers on the program and introduced the directors. Immediately following the last concert the bands formed in line of march and began a parade. It led down Michigan Avenue to the depot where ranks were broken and the several bands formed into an immense band. Led by a corps of drum majors, all stepping high, the en masse band returned to the Tourist park playing "Refrigerator."

A very interesting and enthusiastic meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Golf Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the Club house. After the potluck luncheon, a business meeting was held when the president, Mrs. Olaf Mickelson, named the committees for the year. To Recruit Group For Air Force

The United States Air Force is offering a most unusual 4th of July celebration to local youths.

Sgt. Lucas, Air Force recruiter, announced today that a special group of only 500 enlistees will be sworn into the Air Force in a mass ceremony at the 8th International Air Exposition at Detroit's Wayne-Major Airport, July 2, 3, and 4.

These enlistees will be known officially as the Wolverine Independence Group and will be flown directly from the Air Show to their basic training base, Geneva, New York.

All those who join the Wolverine Independence Group together will have an opportunity to complete their entire basic training as a group. Many of the young Airmen who enlisted at the Air Show last year are still enjoying their Air Force careers together.

As another special feature of the ceremony, the enlistees will be sworn into the Air Force by a high government official. In 1954, General Nathan Durning, Chief of Staff of the United States Air Force, officiated at this ceremony.

Sgt. Lucas also said that young men who are interested in joining the Wolverine Independence Group should contact him immediately at 303 Howard St., Petoskey, Michigan or call Petoskey, Di 7-4492.

V-8 POWER from the V-8 leader... that's what you get in a Ford. And Ford's Trigger-Torque "go" means more than just trigger-quick action on take-offs. It gives you a whole new feeling of confidence and security in traffic or on the open road.

YEARS-AHEAD LOOKS... you see it in every Thunderbird-inspired line. For, this '55 Ford is truly the styling "trend-setter." Perhaps you've noticed, too, you see more and more Fords in front of homes where formerly only costlier cars were parked.

SMOOTHER GOING... and you'll go more places! The reason? Ford's revolutionary Ball-Joint Front Suspension is better than ever. For '55, springs are tilted back to absorb bumps from the front as well as up and down. You'll find even the smooth roads seem smoother!
